JOHNSON C. SMITH UNIVERSITY
Charlotte, N.C.

56th Edition

Theme: Going For The Gold

Now we band together as Smithites, on this adventurous but tedious trek,
We create our own destiny as we decide which roads to select.

Though we get tired, worn and frustrated while we pursue our unanimous goal, one tries to quit but he can't because the fire of inspiration burns within his soul.

If you opened up our heads and probed into our minds, you would see the mighty Smithites being the first to cross all lines.

So if you see a prestigious Smithite, which is an honor, lo and behold, ask him where he's going and he'll say: "I'm going for the Gold"

Going For The Gold

The 1983-84 Yearbook Staff chose as its theme "Going for the Gold." Seeing that 1984 is an olympic year and we are the Golden Bulls we found this theme to be timely in many ways.

"Going for the Gold" can be looked at in many different ways; athletically, academically, and arabitiously.

Athletically, in that the olympic athletes will compete for the gold in Sarajevo in the winter and in Los Angeles in the summer; academically in the sense that we as students should "Go for the Gold," in striving to make the highest grades possible, and ambitiously by taking advantage of all opportunities in school, to be prepared to face the challenges of the world upon graduation. *Special thanks to Martin Troupe who actually said the theme "Going for the Gold" at the beginning of the year.

CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA 28216

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

To the Class of 1984:

I am honored that you have chosen to dedicate this record of your final year at Johnson C. Smith University to me. During my tenure at JCSU, I foresee being close to many classes of students. However, I share with you a very special bond because you are the first class of my presidency.

You leave an institution that has shared and will continue to share a legacy of excellence. The ultimate measure of the success of any institution of higher education is revealed in the progress and success of its graduates. I rest assured that you, too, will join the many Smithites who have become standard bearers for the university and through your success you will become an ambassador for Smith throughout the nation and the world.

You leave Smith at a critical point in this country's history. We are a nation debating the value of higher education, debating the necessity of predominately Black colleges/universities, debating the purpose of foreign policy which sends our youth to settle other countries' conflict; we are a nation debating the quality of our own technology, industry, and laborers as we face stringent foreign competition and in such debates dreams can be lost.

As you leave Smith, I offer you a statement of advise: HOLD FAST AND NURTURE YOUR DREAMS, FOR FROM THAT NURTURING, THAT TENACITY, DETERMINATION, DREAMS ARE MADE REALITY.

I wish you a progressive and successful future.

Sincerely,

Robert L. Albright

Dedication

This year the yearbook staff decided to dedicate the 1983-84 BULL to Dr. Albright and his family. Positive strides toward academic excellence and improvement of the total college experience are evidenced in his continuous work for this institution. Dr. Albright, we salute you and your family, and we hope that all of your future efforts to improve Johnson C. Smith will be productive and fruitful.

Going for the

Faces And Places

Elizabeth Anthony
Senior Class President

"Follow Your Dreams . . . The Future is Now," was the theme in which we the Senior Class tried to uphold. The year was filled with laughter and tears of things to come. The Class of 84 was a class on the move to be sure. Even rival classes had to admit that the super seniors had it together.

The times we have experienced at Johnson C. Smith couldn't be experienced at any other college. We have grown up into young men and women. We have learned that nothing is just given to us. We must work to attain what we want - to achieve the ultimate goal. The goal we achieve will be nothing if we don't remember who helped us to achieve it.

In closing, I would like to say that the future isn't as far away from us now. It is a reality. The dream of walking upon the stage to accept your degree is here. What will you do with your future?

"Love for 84"

Elizabeth Anthony
Senior Class President

JUNIOR CLASS SPARKLES!

REGGIE BODREK

Student Government Association

ERVIN GOURDINE, S.G.A. PRESIDENT

Dear fellow Smithites,

I would first like to begin by saying that I was thrilled that you chose me to serve as your president. It was one of the most exciting, thrilling, hard, but yet the most memorable experience in my life. When I sit down and think about the day when my reign will come to an end. It saddens me because I will miss the job very much. But even more importantly, I will miss all the courageous and dedicated students.

I thank you for the good times we've shared in our everyday lives, the faith that you instilled in me, the confidence you've shown me, and for attending the meetings as well as scheduled events. But most of all, I thank you for respecting me as a student as well as your president.

To the faculty and staff, I truly love each and every one of you. With your help we have proven that united we will stand. Once again, I thank God, my parents, the students, and the faculty and staff. Remember, no matter where I go or whatever I do, I will always be loyal to JCSU.

Sincerely yours,
Ervin Gourdine
S.G.A. President

New Sensations

Left to right: Wanda Harris, Willette Houston, Tony Reeves, Sherwood Smith, Stephanie Brown.

"I WILL STRIVE TO DO MY BEST, AND LET GOD DO THE REST"

Oh, Heavenly Father, as I pray,
Give me the strength to face today.
Take my hand and walk with me
That I may be what you'd have me be.
Grace me with your strength to make it through
To accomplish the things you have given me to do.
Teach me to stretch out on faith more,
And fill my basket from Heaven's grocery store.
Let me not misrepresent you,
But do only those things you would have me to.
Let me not be disobedient or unjust,
But to leave all my complaints in your trust.
And, oh Father, if the sun does not shine today,
Help me to see beauty anyway.
If things do not all go my way,
Distrub my mind so that I will pray
That I enter not into temptation
But keep my eyes on salvation.
And help me to remember always
That I am not in this world to stay,
But am passing through as your child -
Only to stay for a little while.
And Father, before I close,
Help me to help others.
Help me to get along here in this place;
Keep me in your love and saving grace.
Help me to keep this prayer in my mind -
To look towards you through all times;
For I realize that I am just one,
And my journey towards Heaven has just begun.
Help me, oh Lord, as I pray,
To serve you more everyday;
To strive to do my best,
And let my Heavenly Father do the rest.

Yearbook Staff 1983-84

What a year! Being elected Miss University Yearbook 1983-84 has really been an honor, a sure pleasure, and definitely a total enjoyment. It was hard work, but with the help of dedicated people on the staff it was a little easier. Going For the Gold, this year's theme is exactly what this staff has done. We went for the GOLD and I feel we have acquired it. I thank this year's staff for helping me "Go For the Gold." I love each and every member of this staff and I hope our success will go on. To next year's queen, may you have the support, success, dedication, and love that I had. To the staff, I thank you from the bottom of my heart. Good luck and may God's light always shine upon you.

God bless you all,

Miss University Yearbook

Yearbook Staff 1983-84

Serving as Associate Editor has been an experience I shall never forget. The road was long and hard and many obstacles were placed before me. I thank God for his guidance and strength and for giving me the determination to keep striving and working hard. I also thank those who supported the production of this book and the dedicated staff members who gave much of their free time during the week and on Saturdays putting forth 100% effort. I also thank Mr. Johnell Kinsey, our photographer for his promptness and patience and Mr. Wayne Wolfe our representative from the publishing company for his guidance, patience, and understanding. I also thank our advisor, Mr. Ernest James.

"Going For The Gold" is a timely theme because it expresses to me a challenge to move forward and never stop until the end is achieved.

I wish the best to next year's staff. May God smile on you and keep you moving forward on the road to a successful production.

Sincerely,

Sylvester Scipio

Jesse Jackson Convocation

On Thursday, October 18, 1983, the internationally acclaimed Rev. Jesse Jackson was the featured speaker in the University Church.

His speech dealt with voter registration and the involvement of minorities in the political arena. He is a very outspoken man on many issues. He is a native of Greenville, S.C. He now resides in Chicago, Ill.

He has been instrumental in the Operation PUSH campaign. Through this organization, he has successfully pioneered boycotts to gain recognition and equality for black businesses and corporations.

Recently, he has gained much publicity because of his quest for the 1984 Democratic Presidential nomination. Many leading Black political figures are not supporting him in his endeavor, however, he is still striving.

He is truly an outstanding Black American and leading political figure. He is an inspiration to society in all parts of the country.

Miss North Carolina 1984 Visits JCSU

Deneen Graham, 1984 Miss North Carolina was presented to the students, faculty, staff and the Charlotte community in the Union Main Lounge on Sunday, November 20, 1983. This program was co-sponsored by the Links, Inc. of Charlotte and the Alumni Affairs office of Johnson C. Smith University. She gave a brief speech and was presented flowers by Dr. Rowe-Anderson on behalf of Achievers Unlimited News. Remarks were made by President Albright and President of the Links. University Choir members Uriah Scott and Charles Head each sang one selection and Miss JCSU, Anita Price sang excerpts from famous Duke Ellington tunes. Deneen's family was presented and the fact was made known that both her parents are graduates of J.C.S.U.

Deneen's achievement is landmark event for black women and the Negro race as a whole. Being selected as the first black Miss North Carolina is significant because it shows if you work hard you can accomplish any goal.

Deneen, we congratulate you on this dynamic achievement and we wish you the best as you continue on throughout life. May you be successful always and may God bless you.

Pretty Legs Contest

This year twelve legs won the top three honors. Those legs belong to Tony Reeves and Cynthia Fife - third place, Terrence Cole and Kim Relford - first place, Charles Minnis and Kathy McKenzie - second place.

The top honors went to these two pairs of parallizingly gorgeous legs: Terrence Cole, first place in the men's division, Kim Relford, first place in the women's division.

This beautius bevy were the feme fatales for this year's pretty legs contest. As you can see the question was very hard to answer as to who had the prettiest legs.

Strut your stuff, honey

The judges, Joe Crosby, Maxine Mackins, Ricky Clark and Issac Fullard tally the score as Mr. Gidney looks on. The contestants had to walk down the aisle and in front of the judges. They were graded on personal appearance and audience response. This year's decision was difficult indeed.

This year male and female Pretty Legs Contests were combined. Even though there were only seven guys, the thrills of the audience and the sex appeal of the guys were still tremendous. As the picture proves, the decision the judges had to make was very hard.

I am strong, I am invincible, I am woman

Peace to you the Johnson C. Smith University family and all friends who have taken the time to share in the memories of our year 1983-84.

My matriculation here at J.C.S.U. has been laborious, joyful and fulfilling. It has afforded me many memories, desires, and hopes. In graduating from this historic black institution, I take with me not only a degree but a challenge to provide the will to obtain the knowledge which I have so received, to others. There have been many people to offer me advice, a kind word, or encouragement. Others sought to binder only succeeded in building my self confidence and will to strive. Through it all I offer the greatest of thanks to my advisors, instructors, and true friends. But most of all to the students of JCSU, my family and my Lord and Savior.

Yours in Grace,

Going For The Gold

Well, another day at practice

A Smithite Goes For The Olympic Gold!

Jessica Ferguson, a sophomore Smithite (86 rocks the yard) majoring in banking and finance, is a native of Lynchburg, Virginia. She is the daughter of Ms. Lorraine Ferguson, and is the first to attend college in her family.

Jessica, better known as "Boo" to the Smith family, graduated from Heritage High School in Lynchburg. While there she established many track records that are still being held today. These records are in the hurdles, 100 meter, 200 meters and the long jump. She also received many awards and opportunities. Several of these honors include eligibility for state meets in 9-12 grades and most valuable player 10-12 grades. She was nominated All-District, All-Regional, and All-State for four consecutive years. She also participated in the Junior Olympics her sophomore and junior years at Heritage.

At the present time, Jessica is faced with the challenge of becoming eligible for this 1984 summer olympics. She is presently ranked 17th in the nation in the 100m, time: 11.34, ranked 23rd in 200m, time: 23.85, and 27 in hurdles. The 100m (time 11.34) is a national record for the N.A.I.A.

To be eligible for the Olympics, Boo has to run the 100m in 11.3 and 200m in 23.8 before to make the T.A.C. and afterwards she'll be off to train for the Olympics.

Jessica feels that with a lot of practice that she will make it. She stated that her inspiration came from her brother William and her mother. Her brother William was a football player and she raced him often and came close to beating him several times. And as for her mother, Jessica says, "I don't like to disappoint her." In that, she hopes that her mother is there to support her and make her performance better.

Johnson C. Smith cheerleaders promote school spirit during football and basketball seasons. They try to get crowd participation at pep rallies and home and away games. During Homecoming, the squad goes to the alumni hotel to pass our buttons, etc. They also have dances, car washes, splash parties and sell candy, buttons, ribbons etc. to raise money for the organization.

Going For The Gold

These are various scenes of the campus where pep rallies and parties are held. Let's not forget secret rendez-vous and just plain ordinary hanging out

On The Block

This is the "Block"
The place where all
Smithites come to rock.

Pep rallies, cookouts and
All types of dances,
Music, people and instant
Romances.

Shucking and Jiving and Raising hell,
Even guys throwing gals
Into the tree well.

Our own little place of enchantment
Our own little private stock.
We get off, we get down, and
We jam on the BLOCK.

By Deedra Wright

"Maybe if we look like we're just casual they'll take a picture of us."

"This is when dear old mom would be needed!"

"I jump for joy to go to Smith."

Alpha Kappa Alpha

Alpha Kappa Alpha is the oldest Greek-letter organization established in America by Black college women. It is, rather, a significant and inspiring reflection of the development of a minority group in a changing culture.

Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Inc. was founded in 1908 at Howard University located in Washington, D.C. In its earliest years, Alpha Kappa Alpha became a symbol of the aspirations of able young women to develop their full potentials in an atmosphere of friendship and mutually supportive stimulation to excellence.

"When I die and go to heaven life owes me naught,
For once I've been in AKA, I've lived my day."

Alpha Phi Alpha was the first black fraternity founded by seven men at Cornell University in 1906. The fraternity was created to promote leadership, scholarship, and love for all mankind. Here at Johnson C. Smith, the Alpha Omicron Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha was created in 1923. This year the 16 brothers can be seen all throughout the university working toward a better quality of student life as well as promoting scholarship and holding several student leadership positions on campus. This year, the brothers community service project was to work on several occasions with the students of Upward Bound.

In Memoriam . . . Mrs. Lessie Deavers

1965-1983

Mrs. Lessie Deavers was known by all Smithites for her gentility, her humility and her love for her fellowman. Her interest in people - their well-being and their happiness was evident as she became active in campus organizations along with her other civic, religious and social affiliations.

At the time of her death, Mrs. Deavers was employed as director of the University Post Office, a position she had held for eighteen years.

She will be sadly missed by all. We shall never see another like her.

This Is One

Just the two of us.

Love will keep us together.

Girls just wanna have fun.

Of Those Moments

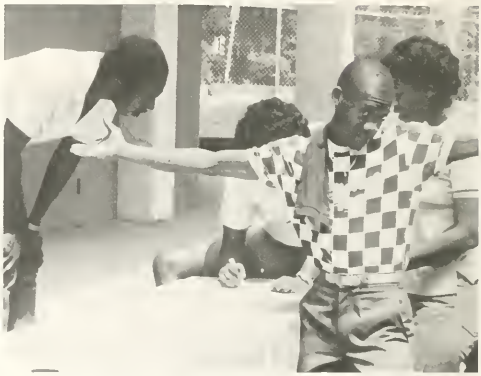
She was more like a beauty queen.

You see a sight that almost stops your heart.

Oh, just beat it!

Getting That Head Start

Oh well, another term.



In Preparing For Freshman Orientation

We Are Family

I never can say goodbye.

I can't smile without you.

Pretty young things.

Let the music play.

FORMAL WEAR

MARK OF MAN

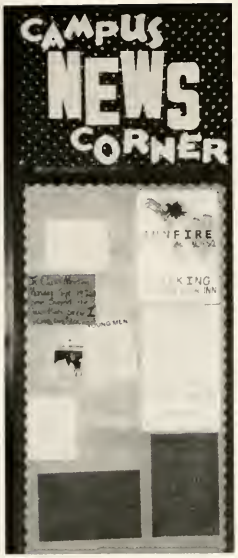
GARRY HOAGLAND
MANAGER

3205 FREEDOM DRIVE
FREEDOM MALL
CHARLOTTE, N. C. 28208
(704) 392-0888

I thank Gary Hoagland, manager of Mitchell's Formal Wear, who allowed me and my two constituents to represent their store by modeling their clothing. I would personally recommend their service to anyone. I hope the next young man will enjoy his year as much as I have enjoyed mine. Once again, thank you and may God bless and forever keep you.

Sincerely,
Walter McAllister

The Life At Smith



Photos By Larry Murehison

In the makings of the 1983-84 "Going For The Gold" yearbook, I came across a lot of trials and tribulations. As you can see, I've come through the hard times. There were days when it seemed as if there wasn't any hope left. Then my friend Scipio would say, "have faith in God." I did have faith in Him. Whenever there were times of disappointment and heartache in which the future looked bleak, I'd look towards the Lord and the future wouldn't look so foreign anymore.

This year's book was produced by people who put their hearts in to the makings. Everyone on my staff that stuck by me made me feel good.

This year, the staff has produced the makings of the "1983-84 Going For The Gold." Even with so many make-up dates for pictures we survived. I hope next year's staff won't have as much trouble as we did with getting participation and cooperation from students, faculty, and staff.

I feel we did a splendid job and I'd like to give special thanks to my mother and father. They not only gave me support from a distance, but they gave me the courage to go on. They told me never give up on what you start and never be a quitter. A special thanks also to my executive board, Scipio, Angela, Sabrina, and Lana. As for my staff, I couldn't have done it without you. I haven't forgotten you either Mr. James. You have been a great advisor.

Thanks all of you for standing by me and the 1983-84 "BULL." Hey, we did it and yes I am proud of it all. I also need to thank all my photographers, you all were the greatest. How can I say enough thanks to my artists? Thanks fellows for all the great work.

My most special thanks to Mr. Johnell Kinsey. Thanks for your outstanding photos. Without you we wouldn't have had so many great photos of the faculty and student body.

Sincerely,
Beulah Winslow
Editor-In-Chief

We've all been together for a whole year now. It's an indignation to part from our nearest friends and lovers. The time though, when we walk alone to the other side . . .
